

TOP SECRET!
FOR BOARD'S EYES ONLY

To: The Mega Hard Wood Group's Board of Trustees.
Subject: Boom The Moon!

To All,

We are less than a week away and things are proceeding according to plan. So far there is no sign that Sawtooth, public or government know our true intentions. After launch and blast, retrieved helium will be deposited at the Bubble Buzz storage facility. There 5% will be slowly doled out to placate the public while the rest will be diverted to the hidden underground storage tanks to be used for new Bubble Buzz Soda line. With this supply of helium Bubble Buzz will become the only helium infused drink in the world, sending profits through the roof.

Once the product is released we will execute Boom The Idiot! Plan to rid ourselves of William Sawtooth III once and for all. It is imperative that all voting shares are held secure and not registered until August 31st in order to maintain secrecy.

Remember folks within 2 weeks you will all be some of the richest people on Earth. And we won't have to listen to that damn Sawtooth blabber away anymore.

LET'S BOOM THE MOON!
